

Review -WIGUT Christmas Party 2016

General Comments

Two hundred and eighty eight (288) persons participated in the survey this year. This was a 57% increase over respondents in 2015. For most of the questions, over 280 persons answered with the exception of music and venue, where the respondent were 254 and 271 respectively.

An analysis of the results revealed that respondents felt that the party was good with all 5 areas surveyed, that is, food, emcee, entertainment, music and décor receiving a percentage rating in the high 40's. There were much fewer comments on the function this year as against last year, with those received having to do with not getting dessert and ham and portion size being too small at the beginning of the function. 71 % of respondent stated that the function should remain at SCR, this is a decrease from last year where the percentage was approximately 83%.

Food

48% of persons rated the food as good and 24% as excellent.

Performers

The performers were deemed good by 52% of the attendees, while 26% said they were satisfactory.

Decorations

Forty-Nine percent of attendees felt the decorations were good, while 29% described the decorations as satisfactory.

Music

Participants mainly felt the music was good (48%) and 23% felt it was satisfactory.

Emcee

42% rated the emcee as good and 37% percent as satisfactory.
